

My dear brethren in Christ,

God is truly able to do exceeding abundantly beyond all that we ask or think. Candace and I are so excited to be blessed with a son, and so grateful that he is going to have a family like you. Paul asked the Corinthians, "And what do you have that you did not receive?" That question causes us to realize how much we have that we did not earn. As we count our many blessings, you are among our most precious of treasures. Thank you so much for your love and support; for your friendship and kindness.

If the Lord wills, we look forward to many more years of work with the church at Adamsville. We are praying for the elders and deacons and for Ronnie and Chance as they labor here to the glory of God. May God continue to bless us all.

Sincerely,

Ashley

Dear Adamsville family,
Thanks so much for the gift on Sunday. We really enjoy working and cleaning for the church. Thank you all for the opportunity.

Jamie, Kim, Kyle, Lauren, & Magan Gilbert

To our church family,
We really appreciate the monetary gift as well as the encouragement throughout the year. Wishing you great joy for the holiday season.

Ann & Dan Kilgore

To my brothers and sisters in Christ,
Thank you so much for showing your appreciation for the work I do. I am so thankful for the opportunity to work with such dedicated elders. I truly enjoy the time I spend at work and the special people I work with. It has been an absolute pleasure to serve my family at Adamsville and I look forward to many more wonderful years with you.

To Friends and Family at Adamsville,

2008 is almost gone. It is amazing how time gets away from us. We began our seventh year at Adamsville in June and it seems like only yesterday when we came. In this time our appreciation and love for you grows more every day.

I must say "Thank You" to this eldership for their trust and support, to the deacons for their tireless work, and to every member who does so much in God's Kingdom. Your support of our efforts is overwhelming!

"Thank You" for all of your generosity during this year and especially at this time. Each gift, card, and prayer is cherished. May God bless you richly!

My prayer is that "2009 be the best year we have ever had at Adamsville".

For all of the Hayes'

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,
Thank you so very much for the gift. I am truly blessed to have a family like you and double blessed to work for you as a secretary. Thank you for the opportunity to serve you in the Lord's work. Have a happy holiday season. Love to you all,

Janice Key

Thank you so much for the gift given to me Sunday at our fellowship meal. It will be very helpful at this holiday season. I really enjoy what I do for the church and I can't tell you what a joy it is to be associated with the people that work in our offices. Wishing everyone of you a Happy Holiday Season.
