July 16 Whom Should I Date and Marry? Bobby Liddell

Bobby Liddell, grew up in Adamsville, graduated from Adamsville Junior High and Minor High, and then attended Walker College and UAB. He began attending the Adamsville Church of Christ, where he obeyed the Gospel in 1972, being baptized by Bob Duncan. Brother Duncan also performed the marriage ceremony for Bobby and Joan Loe, who had attended Adamsville all her life. Encouraged by the teaching and preaching of brother Duncan, Franklin Camp, and others, he and Joan committed themselves to preaching the Gospel, and left Adamsville for the Memphis School of Preaching, graduating in 1979. In addition, he holds B.A. and M.A degrees from Alabama Christian School of Religion (Amridge University). Bobby has preached for thirty years, serving locally in Alabama, Florida, and Tennessee, has spoken in lectures and meetings, and on radio and TV in the states, as well as in missionary trips to Singapore, the Philippines, Hong Kong, Latvia, and Canada.

Since August 1994, Bobby has worked with the Memphis School of Preaching, as Instructor, Dean of Admissions, and Associate Director. Since March 2007, he has served as Director of the School. He continues to preach in several meetings and lectures each year, across the nation, but always counts it a special honor and privilege to be able to preach at his home congregation—Adamsville.
