NUMBER 17

“Become As Little Children”

Lydia Knight

Our 2008 Lads to Leaders and Leaderettes convention is centered around I Timothy 4:12. Here Timothy says, “Let no one look down on your youthfulness, but rather in speech, conduct, love, faith, and purity show yourself an example of those who believe.” One of the first things that popped into my head when I read this verse was, “Why would anyone look down on young people?”. Let’s consider why Timothy encourages older people to refrain from looking down on youth.

In Matthew 18:3, Jesus said, “Assuredly, I say to you, unless you are converted and become as little children, you will by no means enter the Kingdom of Heaven.” Instead of looking at young people as if they have little value, try to learn from their attitudes. At my congregation we have a group of young ladies called “The Sunshine Girls”. They are always doing good things for others, including supporting an orphan in China. Also, our youth group participates in mission work and they spend hours together creating a special bond that fulfills the command, “Beloved let us love one another...”, given in I John 4:7-8.

There are many reasons to look toward our youth for examples of speech, conduct, love, faith, and purity. Being young is a struggle and we need encouragement. If a young person in your congregation is showing Christ through their actions, tell them how much you appreciate them today!
